

TEEN PROJECTS SUBMISSIONS CONSENT FORM

Columbus Metropolitan Library (CML) occasionally offers programming and events such as writing contests and art shows and encourages students to participate by submitting their original writings, photos, digital art or videos through the Teen Projects form on the Teen Page of the library's website. Students who submit their work may have the opportunity to have their work promoted through a library event or through the library's website and/or social media accounts. 3. The work which my child submitted is their own original work.
